

Shawnee Lacrosse

Although lacrosse was usually played by Shawnee men, in social games men and women played together. Men had to go by the usual rules of using only a racket to catch and pass the ball, but women were allowed to use their hands.

Two teams strived to get the game ball to their respective goals. The team with the most goals won. Such games were probably played during celebrations. Spectators had just as much fun watching as players did playing.